Share a story of something you've finished recently and how that felt.

Do you consider yourself one of the few workers of the plentiful harvest? Why? What other things can you be doing to help make sure the harvest happens (weekend serve teams, local impact projects, global impact trips, etc.)? How have you been praying for more workers?

Discuss the principle that everyday can be harvest season in your life. How is that possible? How can you capitalize on what you and others have planted each day?

What can you finish strong at this year to see God harvest something in your life and the lives of others around you? What goals do you need to set to make sure you finish?

What you commit to God determines what happens. What specific things do you need to commit to God to make sure you do finish? How can the group help?

Pray for one another to remain faithful each day to work and harvest the things of God.
