

Sisterhood CONFERENCE

FAQs

What ages should come to this event?

All women from middle school and up are invited!

Women in 6th - 12th grade should register as a student.

Is there childcare?

While all families are important to us, there will be no Alive Kids during this event. Women wearing babies in infant, on-body carriers are welcome as we strive to create a calming, peaceful environment for all.

What should we wear?

Casual attire is suggested.

Will food be provided?

Dinner is not part of the event Friday.

We encourage you to get some friends together and go to dinner before coming to the conference.

A light brunch will be provided during the conference on Saturday.

Will the price always be $89?

Nope!

Adults should register now for $89 before the cost increases to $119 on April 21.

Students should register now for $49 before the cost increases to $59 on April 21.

Can I get a refund if I cancel?

Registrations are non-refundable, but they are transferrable. This means you can transfer your registration to another woman you specify, or as an anonymous sponsorship opportunity for those needing financial support.

You're making a difference just by registering!

A portion of all ticket sales will go to Convoy of Hope to support women's empowerment all over the world—helping the lives of women and their families receive hope for a better tomorrow.
