Why Studying the Bible Matters

Studying the Bible is important for growing your relationship with God. It has often been said, "It's not only that we read the Bible, but that the Bible reads us." Engaging with the Bible draws us closer to God and teaches us the Truth. Right now, we are living in a time when many people believe truth is relative, but as Christians, we have access to the Word of Truth at all times. "When you know the truth, the truth sets you free," said Jesus, and His Word is Truth.

What is SOAP?

SOAP is a Bible reading and journaling method that helps us process, reflect on, and apply God's Word to our lives. We don't read the Bible just to read the Bible—, we read the Bible to be changed by God. As you study God's Word, pray and ask the Holy Spirit to speak to you and change you for the better.

SOAP Stands For:

S • Scripture

O • Observation

A • Application

P • Prayer

Let the Word speak to you, challenge you, comfort you, convict you, and change you.

HOW TO USE THE SOAP METHOD

Scripture

Start with prayer, asking God to speak to you through His Word. Then, read through the passage of scripture slowly. As you read, ask God to highlight a verse(s) and write it in your journal.

Observation

Write down some observations about this verse or passage. These can be simple observations or delve into much deeper study.

Questions to consider:

- What is the background or the setting?
- Notice things like repetition, comparison, and contrast.
- What is the overall theme of this passage?
- What questions arise as you read and study? (These can be studied further.)
- Who was it written by?
- Who is the original audience?
- What is the historical or cultural context?

Word Study: Use resources like blueletterbible.org, biblegateway.com, etc., to further understand certain words and meanings, or to gain greater insight into a topic/theme.

Application

Write down how you can apply this scripture to your life.

Questions to consider:

- What does the passage/verse teach me about God?
- What does this passage/verse teach me about myself?
- How should this change me?
- How does this truth give me a perspective to see the way God sees?
- What should I do in response?
- How does it prompt me to pray, interact, and relate with other people?

Prayer

Write out a prayer thanking and praising God for His truth. Praise God for the attributes of Him that were revealed to you in this passage. Confess any sin that has come to light during this time of studying. Thank Him for His Word, and ask Him to continue to work in and through you. Turn the scripture into a prayer back to God.

Topic: Love your neighbor as yourself

Scripture

"The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these."

Mark 12:31 NIV

Observation

Mark 12:31 encourages us to love our neighbors as ourselves. It's a reminder that genuine care and empathy for others should guide our actions, just as we naturally look out for ourselves. It's a powerful call to build communities rooted in love and compassion, where each individual's well-being matters as much as our own.

Application

As I go about my day today I need to be more intentional to treat people the way I would want people to be treated. Practically, this could look like being mindful of how I speak to people, serving others, praying for others, and checking in on a friend.

Prayer

Jesus, I pray that you would help me to love others more intentionally. Would you soften my heart and help me to show compassion to others as you have shown compassion? Give me a greater desire to serve, love, and honor other people in the same way, Jesus. Help me to treat others the way I would want to be treated. Amen.
